Meet Our Medium to Big Furkids

AUGUST 2025

Our journey began in 2021, with Nagham Badawi's personal passion for rescuing dogs in need. What started with a single act of kindness quickly grew into a powerful community effort — a mission fueled by incredible partners, volunteers, and supporters who believe every life deserves a second chance.

In the early days, we operated fully through a foster-based network, giving dogs safety, love, and care in home environments, while working toward a bigger vision — a true home for our rescues.

Thanks to this community, we've been able to rehabilitate, rehome, or assist over 300 dogs, spreading hope both locally and internationally.

On May 2nd, 2025, that dream became reality as we proudly opened the doors to Furkids Sanctuary, now the largest and happiest independent dog rescue sanctuary in Qatar.

Furkids Sanctuary is proudly kennel-free, offering more than 70 furkids a safe, loving environment where they are socialized daily through activities, events, and the constant care of volunteers who prepare them for their forever families. At Furkids Sanctuary, we are not just a place — we are a family.

A community where every paw finds love, and every heart finds joy.

HAVING A PET

Are you ready?

Having a pet can be one of the most rewarding experiences, where you're met with genuine love and form an eternal bond. However, it's crucial to ensure you're truly ready for the commitment.

Owning a pet means committing to their well-being for potentially over 15 years. It requires financial stability to cover medical expenses, potential relocations, and ensuring your accommodation is pet-friendly. Additionally, life changes such as marriage or having kids shouldn't lead to abandoning your furry friend.

Regular exercise is vital, with a minimum of two walks a day being necessary. While we provide behavior analysis for our dogs, many have experienced trauma, so being prepared to provide training and work with specialists is essential if behavioral issues arise.

We firmly believe that our dogs deserve to be part of a loving family and should live indoors, not relegated to the backyard or other outdoor arrangements. By adopting a pet, you're making a lifelong commitment to their happiness and well-being.

And trust us, the gratitude and happy moments that will be added to your life will be worth the effort you're making.

I used to live near the big stadium in Lusail, with my friend Luz. We were scared of people, but we never wanted to hurt anyone. We just wanted to be left alone.

Before the World Cup, everything changed. The area was being cleared, and we had nowhere to hide. Trucks came. My sibling Luz and I were the last ones left.

Then someone came who didn't chase us away. She waited. She spoke gently. She brought food. Slowly, we got closer. She didn't scare us—she saw us.

That's when everything changed.

We were rescued. The car ride was scary, but Luz was by my side. Now, we're safe. We have shelter, gentle hands, and full hearts.

We are a bit scared and shy. People call us "sweet girls" now.

They're right.

If I have my toys and yummy food I'm happy. I'll be happier when I have those in a forever home.

I didn't understand what was happening. One moment, I was playing like any happy pup. The next, I was alone—no home, no family, no one calling my name.

I wandered the streets, confused and scared. People passed by. Some glanced, most didn't. I was hungry, tired, and starting to wonder if anyone would ever really see me.

And then, someone did. She saw me. She offered food, spoke gently, and gave me something I hadn't felt in a long time: safety.

Now I'm in a warm place, with people who care. I'm safe. I'm healing. But I'm still waiting for something more—a real home. A forever kind of love.

I should probably mention something... My teeth? They're a little different from other dogs'. They give me a quirky little smile that makes me stand out. Some might see them as "imperfect," but I think they just make me me. I may look a little different—but I'm still beautiful. And I promise, I've got the kindest heart to match.

I'm Loki. I've been let down before, but I haven't given up. I'm still hoping for someone who sees past the scars and the quirks—to the loyal, loving soul underneath.

I used to live near the Lusail stadium with my best friend, Marley. Back then, we were scared of people—not because we were bad, just because no one had ever been kind to us. We kept to the shadows, hoping to stay safe while the world around us got louder and emptier.

Then everything changed. The area was being cleared before the World Cup. Marley and I were the last ones left.

Then came her. The woman who didn't shout, didn't chase. She brought food and patience. Every day, she sat quietly, letting us come closer when we were ready.

That's when I learned what trust feels like.

She rescued us together. I was scared in the car, but Marley kept me brave. Now, I live in a shelter, still with Marley.

I still have my quirks: I'm not a fan of cats, and I get along better with big dogs than the little ones. But I love humans—especially the ones who let me curl up on the sofa. My favorite treats? Carrots! Crunchy, sweet, and mine.

They call me a "sweet girl" now—and it finally feels true.

I can't wait for the day where I get to eat my favourite treats on a sofa in my very own forever home!

Hello, I'm Bruno ,
And I got a story to tell,,

Life took a rather adventurous turn for me and my buddy Loki. We were both dumped on a dog beach, but Loki was the more outgoing one. He'd play with all the dogs who came with their humans, but they'd all leave eventually, and it'd be just us two.

I preferred to stay in the background, hiding away until one day, fate had different plans. On that day, I summoned up the courage to join Loki and some other dogs for a playdate. Little did I know, a rescuer was on the scene, and she decided to rescue my brother Loki. He went right up to her, but I hung back, feeling a tad bit nervous.

I watched as she loaded Loki into her car, and I decided it was now or never. After about an hour, I mustered all my bravery and jumped right into the car with Loki. From that moment, I knew I'd found someone special, and we were in it together.

Sure, I might be a bit of a challenge at first, but once we build trust, I promise there's a whole lot of love I'm ready to give. I'm on the lookout for my forever home now, and I can't wait to be your loyal companion. 🐾❤️

Hello, everyone! I'm Loki, and I've got a pretty unique story to share.

My adventure began on a dog beach where I was abandoned alongside a buddy "Bruno". We were left all alone, fending for ourselves, trying to find food and some shade to escape the scorching sun. It was tough on both of us because we'd never been in a situation like that before.

But you know what? I'm a pretty optimistic pup, so I decided to go out and play with some other dogs on the beach. It turned out to be a good move because some of their kind-hearted humans noticed me and shared their food. It helped, but it still wasn't quite enough. I started losing weight, and that's when things got even more challenging for both Bruno and me.

Despite the hardships, we held onto hope, and eventually, a rescuer arrived to change our lives for the better and I went directly to her and accepted the leash easily. It was a turning point in our journey, and although I am safe in foster place but i am eagerly looking forward to finding loving forever homes where i can give you lot of hugs and kisses and can jump on your lap (I LOVE THIS ). ❤️

Hi, my name is Milo.

I am 2 years old. When I was younger, I remember being tied to a tree with a bag of food under the scorching heat of the Doha sun. It was one of the hardest times of my life. But then, something wonderful happened. I was rescued and brought to a shelter home where I finally felt safe.

I made friends there, and for the first time, I felt like I belonged. But soon, one by one, all my friends were adopted. I was happy for them, but it was hard to be left behind. I stayed hopeful, though, because I know there's a family out there for me too.

People know me for my boundless energy and my loving nature. I can turn any dull moment into a fun adventure. I love playing fetch, cuddling, and just being around people. I have so much love and fun to offer. Please open your hearts and home to me. I promise to be a mischievous yet good boy, bringing joy and laughter into your life.

Hello, I'm Khali,

My adventure began when I found myself in a residential area, abandoned and alone. The weather was scorching hot, and there was no food or water in sight. I felt disoriented and lost, desperately searching for help.

And then, something incredible happened. I came across a kind-hearted man who saw me and took me in. It was as if I knew he would be my savior. Although he didn't have a place for me initially, he couldn't bear to leave me in that state. So, he kept me safe in a clinic for months, where they had only a cold kennel but it was safer for me from streets and i had good care .

Eventually, he found me a foster home, a place where I could be with other dogs and experience the love of a caring people. But I have a dream that I hold close to my heart - the dream of having my very own bed, a place where I can feel safe and cherished.

My journey has been one of resilience and hope, and now I'm searching for that special someone who can provide me with a forever home and, most importantly, a comfy bed to call my own and they never dumo me. Could you be the one to make my dream come true? 🐾❤️

Hi, I'm Miles 🐾

I still remember the day my life changed—June 14th, 2023. I was hurt, my leg was broken, and I didn't know what would happen to me. But then, I found myself hiding under a car. I don't know if it was luck or fate, but that's where kind humans noticed me and decided I deserved another chance.

I was so young, still hopeful, even though my leg ached. I got the care I needed, and slowly, I began to heal. After that, I was given a foster home for 5 months. Oh, I loved it there—especially the kids. I'd try to curl up on top of them like I was a tiny teacup pup. (I still think I'm small, even though apparently, I'm not! 😊)

The truth is, I love children. Their laughter, their energy—it makes me wag my tail endlessly. The I'm also very affectionate with all people. I'm confident, outgoing, and I've never been shy about making new friends.

And oh boy, do I love my toys and treats! Give me a squeaky toy or a tasty snack, and I'll show you just how happy I can be. I'm also really food-motivated, which means I'm always eager to learn and work for rewards.

I was potty trained once, but being back in a shelter has been confusing for me, and I might need a little refresher. I know I can do it again with patience and guidance.

Now I'm living at the Furkids Sanctuary, waiting patiently for my forever home. I may not be the tiny lap dog I imagine myself to be, but I promise I have a giant heart full of love to give. All I want is a family who will see me for who I am: a goofy, affectionate, confident, big-hearted boy named Miles. 💙

My story began when my family dumped me. I found my way into a compound, and luckily, a kind family noticed me and took me in. Sadly, they had other dogs that didn't get along with me, so they handed me over to a rescuer. Thankfully, they're still looking out for me.

Now, I'm living with many rescued friends, but deep down, I hope to find a home of my own where I can be the center of attention. You see, us dogs don't have a long time on this Earth, and I really wish to spend the rest of my days surrounded by the love and care of a family that's truly mine. Hello, I'm HOPE, the mix Husky with cute face,,,,,

I've had quite an adventure! You see, I was once abandoned by my owner and left to fend for myself. Luckily, there was a kind lady who rescued me after long desperate days in the heat in the suburb area with neither food nor water, i was very skinny, dehydrated outdoor in the harsh hot weather... I was transfered to a nice villa of dogs and cats foster with other rescued dogs and immediately i made new friends especially my best friend Flic, a husky Boy, that i play a lot with him. I am a very dynamic dog love to play around with dogs, cats and kids also that live in our foster villa. I had a chance to be rescued as i transformed from a very scared dog to a happy and healthy one. Now, I'm eagerly looking forward to finding a forever home filled with love and care, just like the bond I share with my rescuer. 🐾❤️

Hello, I'm Rhea,
a dog with a big heart and a story to tell.

My journey began with a twist of fate. My mom, Hera, was rescued, and just ten days later, she surprised everyone by giving birth to me and my 10 siblings. She kept us hidden and safe, showing how fiercely she loved and protected us. Out of the 10 of us, 8 survived, and while 3 of my siblings have found their forever homes, the rest of us are still waiting at the boarding place.

Life in boarding can get lonely, and we often get overlooked because of our size. But here's a promise—the bigger we are, the more love we have to give!

I'm a mix of Turkish Shepherd and Saluki, which makes me unique and full of energy. I love being around humans and soaking up all the love and affection I can get. I might be the smallest and sweetest of my siblings, but my heart is just as big.

Now, I'm dreaming of a family that will take me on adventures, shower me with cuddles, and give me the love I've been patiently waiting for.

Could you be the one to make my dreams come true and give me the forever home I deserve? 🐾

My last beach adventure turned into an unexpected chapter of abandonment. My family took me to the beach, and I eagerly anticipated a day filled with joy and sun-soaked fun. However, my excitement turned to shock when they left me alone in the sand.

Days passed, and I waited, hoping they would return, but they never did. I found solace in playing with the dogs that visited the beach with their families. However, the joy was fleeting as they all left, leaving me alone to sleep on the cold sand at night.

One day, a kind soul appeared with his dogs, and I found a new sense of belonging. He couldn't bear to leave me behind, and so he took me in. Now, I'm surrounded by many new friends, eagerly awaiting a family that will not only take me to a real beach day and give me bath me when we're home. hi i am lusail a gentle soul with a story of survival and hope. I used to live in a construction site in Lusail with my friends. We had each other, and even though life wasn't easy, we made it work. But one by one, my friends were trapped and taken by the municipality. I was so afraid that I kept my distance and stayed hidden.

For a whole year, I lived alone. A kind lady brought me food every day, but I was too scared to come close. Without my friends, I had no one to play with, and my days felt long and lonely.

Now, I'm in a boarding place, and though I get along with the other dogs, I don't play with them. I'm still learning to trust humans again after everything I've been through. It's a slow process, but I'm getting there. Food is my biggest comfort, and if you have a treat, I'll happily come to you!

I'm very calm by nature and believe a quiet, peaceful home would help me thrive. With time, patience, and love, I know I can learn to trust fully and show you just how special I am.

I'm in the most need of a forever home where I can feel safe, loved, and start to truly heal. Could you be the one to give me that chance? I promise to be a gentle and loving companion, grateful for every moment of kindness you share. 🐾❤️

Hi, I'm Lucy!

My story began when I was just a puppy. I was bought by a family along with my brother "Pixel", but from the age of 2 months to one year, I was tied in the courtyard. During this time, I developed a severe eye infection that wasn't treated, which led to my blindness.

Despite this, I assure you, I am very smart! I've learned how to walk next to you and sit on command. With a bit of patience, I can learn very quickly. I can even learn the layout of the house so I won't bump into anything. You will be surprised by my capabilities.

I get very attached to my human and absolutely love cuddling and giving kisses. I'm very gentle with everyone I meet and try to play with other dogs, too. I just need a chance to have a loving home. It wasn't my fault that I became blind, and if I had a choice, I would have gone to the vet myself to be treated.

I hope to find a heart that can see my real soul, beyond my disabilities.

Love,
Lucy

Hi, I'm Pixel!!

Just like my sister Lucy, I was bought by a family when I was a puppy. From the age of 2 months to one year, we were tied in the courtyard. While Lucy lost her sight due to an untreated eye infection, I remained healthy and strong.

I am a Belgian Malinois, and I'm known for my intelligence and agility. I'm super smart and can learn new commands and tricks very quickly. I need a family who is willing to use my intelligence and train me properly. I am super active and love to play. I thrive on physical and mental stimulation, so I need a home that can keep up with my energy levels.

Even though my sister and I had a tough start, I am full of potential and ready to find a loving home that will appreciate my abilities and give me the opportunity to shine.

If you're looking for a loyal, smart, and energetic companion, ~~I~~ might just be the perfect match for you.

Love,
Pixel

Hi, I'm Bentley!

I was abandoned in a small park between two main streets. I was so scared that I stayed there for two days without moving or eating. Some kind people gave me water, but no one tried to help because they thought I was paralyzed and worried about the medical costs.

Then, Furkids heard my story and saw all the people sharing my stories with no one helping me they took me in. The moment I got into the car, I stood up, and at the clinic, I was walking normally. It turns out I was just too afraid and waiting for my previous family to come back and nothing wrong with my health .

Now, I'm with my siblings, and I am really gentle and sweet. I love to follow you. I'm always ready to brighten your day with my wagging tail and loving nature. I'm looking for a loving home where I can feel safe and cherished, and where I can finally have my own family to love and protect.

Please give me a chance to be part of your family. I promise to fill your life with joy and unconditional love.

Hi, I'm Coco!

All was good in my life as a normal puppy until one day my companion, Ollie, and I were dumped in the street. Another family found me, still wearing a collar and decided I was too sweet to suffer in the extreme summer heat. They vaccinated me, spayed me and helped me become ready for my new life.

I am super goofy and playful. I am so happy to be around people and other dogs. My favourite things are belly rubs, cuddling. I am a lot of fun. The more love I get, the more I give back.

I am looking for a forever home and would love to join a family with kids or other dogs. I think cats would be fun too but I have never lived with one. If you can spend quality time with me, you'll become my favourite person!

Ollie is now adopted and super happy. I am happy for him but I am also wishing for my turn.

🐾💖 Hi, I'm Bella 💖🐾

I was born in a parking lot near the Gold Souq, one of 7 little puppies. Life started very hard for me... some of my siblings were lost in a shooting, and while a few were lucky to find homes, I stayed behind, scared and injured. My mom and dad are still alive, but they live in a shelter now. For many days, I hid in the bushes, too frightened of humans and nursing my wounds. Then one day, kind rescuers found me and promised me I would never know the streets again.

🌸 Now I'm ready for something I've never had before: a forever home. 🌸

I'm a sweet and playful girl. I love being petted, I enjoy playing with other dogs, and I will shower you with loyalty. But I must be honest—I can't resist chasing cats, so a cat-free home would be best for me. 🐕✨

Please give me the chance to be part of your family. I've already survived so much, and all I dream of now is love, safety, and cuddles. 💖

Hi, I'm Freddie! 🐾❤️

I was dumped in the desert by my irresponsible owner, left to fend for myself without anyone knowing I was there. During the search for my friend Patrick, who was also abandoned, the Furkids team stumbled upon me lying in the scorching heat, suffering from heatstroke.

I was literally saved by just 30 minutes between me and death, as Huskies like me can't handle extreme temperatures—especially in August when it soared above 45 degrees Celsius here in Qatar.

Luckily, the kind-hearted team rescued me just in time!

I'm super friendly and playful! After my rescue, I can't express how grateful I am for the second chance at life. I'm a passionate dog who loves being close to humans. I adore cuddling, playing with both people and other dogs, and bringing joy to everyone around me.

If you're looking for a fun, happy dog to brighten your days and fill your life with love, then pick me! I promise to love you forever! ❤️

Hi, my name is Buddy

I am 1 year old. When I was younger, I remember being left by my owners in the scorching summer heat of Doha, with a rope cable-tied around my neck as a collar. It was so scary to be left alone until something wonderful happened. I was rescued and brought to a foster home where I finally felt safe.

I settled down there, and for the first time, I felt like I belonged. My new owners looked after me and started training me and I have been picking up basic commands pretty well. I am still learning manners and need a patient owner to help me learn even more. I know there's a family out there for me too.

I get on well with slightly older kids but am still a little excitable for very young ones. I have my full throttle moments and need some exercise everyday. I love playing fetch and just being around people. I have so much love to offer. Please open your hearts and home to me. I promise to be a good boy and will respond well to a calm owner who will take time to teach me the right way to behave.

My name's Mickey. I'm over a year old, and for a while, I was all alone.

Someone left me out there — no food, no bed, no goodbye. I barked a lot. At people, at animals, at shadows. I was scared, and barking was the only way I knew how to say, "Please don't hurt me."

Then I got rescued. I was safe, finally — but not settled. I moved around a few homes. Nice people, but they were going away, or couldn't keep me long. None of it was my fault... I just needed somewhere solid.

Now I'm in a real foster home. It's quiet. Safe. The people here are patient with me, even when I bark at the vacuum or the mailman. They tell me I'm a good boy — that I'm learning, and that it's okay to take my time.

I still get nervous sometimes, but I'm starting to trust. Starting to believe this could be what home feels like.

I'm waiting for my forever person — someone who'll see past the barking and understand I'm just a young dog trying his best. I don't need perfect. Just someone who'll stay.

Hello i am Hana

Ha bundle of energy and love with a story to share!

When I was just a puppy, my family left me. At first, I stayed near their house, waiting and hoping they would come back for me. But as I grew a little older, they put me out on the street and moved away. I didn't know where to go or what to do, so I stayed there, waiting.

A kind neighbor noticed me and brought me into her courtyard. She tied me there because she couldn't bring me inside, but at least I felt a little safer. Unfortunately, her husband was unhappy about it, and one day he released me back onto the street.

I spent my days wandering, unsure if anyone would ever care for me again. But then, Furkids reached out to the kind lady and arranged for my rescue. That was the day my life began to change!

I'm a super energetic girl who can jump sooooo high—I'd make a great athlete if you let me show off! I'm also a little naughty in the cutest way and absolutely adore being around people. I promise I'll fill your days with laughter, love, and plenty of fun.

Now, I'm dreaming of finding a family who will love me forever and never leave me behind. Could you be the one to give me the home I deserve? 🐾❤️

Hi i am chase ,
a playful and protective pup with a big heart!
My story began when my family left me behind, dumping me near a highway. I didn't know what to do or where to go, so I wandered until I found a kind lady who was feeding stray cats in the area. I was so hungry that I started eating from the cats' food, but I had to protect it because I was scared I wouldn't find food again.

Even though I was nervous and unsure, I loved playing with her little daughter whenever they came by. Those moments gave me a little hope and reminded me of the love I was missing.

Eventually, the kind lady couldn't bear to see me struggle anymore, so she rescued me and gave me a chance at a better life. Now, I'm staying in a boarding place where I've been enjoying playing with other dogs and discovering what it's like to feel safe again.

But as much as I'm grateful for my new friends, I dream of having a home of my own. I'm a very cute boy who loves people, but I still don't like to share my food—I learned to protect it when I was on my own. With a little patience and understanding, I know I can thrive in a loving home.

Could you be the one to give me the forever home
I've been waiting for? I promise to fill your life with fun, loyalty, and lots of love. 🐾❤️

I was just a tiny puppy when the world felt big and cold. I had no mother, no siblings—only the hard ground beneath me and the space between two cars to hide in. I didn't cry anymore. No one ever came when I did.

Until one day, someone did.

She moved gently, spoke softly, and smelled like something warm and safe. When she picked me up, I felt a heartbeat against my body. I hadn't felt that in a long time. I stopped shaking.

She took me to a place with bright lights and kind hands. They gave me shelter, food, and a name—Maple. They said I was sweet and soft like the tree.

Now I'm safe, warm, and growing stronger every day.

I've spent my puppy years surrounded by other rescue animals. It has been safe and comfortable but now I'm ready for my own home.

Hello, I'm Nana,
a loving and loyal girl with a story to share.
My journey began when I was abandoned, left all alone with nowhere to go. One day, a kind lady was out walking her dogs, and I couldn't help but follow her. I was so eager to be with her that I waited patiently for her to come back after dropping her dogs off. When she returned, I jumped straight into her car—I knew she was my chance at being saved.

I've been lucky to spend some time in a foster home, where I loved my foster dad dearly. I was so glued to him that I followed him everywhere.
Unfortunately, the cats in the house weren't too happy about me staying, and since they were there first, I had to move on.

Now, I'm in a boarding place, but it's not the same.
I miss feeling loved and having someone to cuddle with—I adore cuddles and thrive on affection. I'm also very smart and excellent at walking on a leash. People say I'm from a breed known for K9 work, so with the right training, I could be your best friend and a companion as loyal as a police

All I want is a home where I can feel safe and Hi, my name is Pearl. They decided to call me that because they found me walking around for weeks near the Pearl. I'm not sure what happened to my owner—one day I just realized I was on the streets.

I was able to find a little patch of comfortable grass to rest on during the day and night, but I was actually super exhausted and hungry. Of course, I was very skinny.

Suddenly, a lady started to pay attention to me. She began leaving food for me, and from far away, I could see how a dog was loved by its owner. I wanted to get close, but I was too scared someone might hurt me. Every time they tried to approach, I ran and ran—many times.

Until one day, a group of people managed to catch me because I saw a delicious piece of chicken and just couldn't resist.

I struggled a lot to trust at the beginning, and I was terrified. I didn't understand what was happening, but it looked like people were trying to help me.

Now, I live in a big home with many beautiful dogs like me. We love playing together and going for walks too.

I'm really hoping to find a lovely family because all I have to give is a bunch of love and the promise of having fun together—forever. 🐾❤️

They left us—me and my sister, Almond—when we were just two months old.

She was locked inside a cage filled with spoiled food and worms. I was tied to the outside, cold and scared. We didn't understand why. We were just babies.

I barked until my throat hurt. Almond whimpered quietly inside. We stayed close as we could, even with metal and rope between us.

Then one day, kind voices came. They untied me. Opened the cage. Wrapped us in blankets. For the first time in our short lives, we felt safe.

Almond was adopted quickly—she's already home.

I'm now in a loving foster home, learning that not all humans leave. They say I'm brave. That I matter. That someone out there is looking for a puppy just like me.

I'm Atlas. I'm still waiting for forever.

Until she did.

The kind lady didn't pass me by. She knelt down, smiled, and opened her arms. I ran to her like I already knew her. She called me Lady. Gave me a bed, food, toys, and love. She named me Lady and treated me like a queen.

Now I'm safe. I wag again. I dream of soft things instead of scary nights.

She tells people about me every day. Says I'm still waiting for my forever home.

I don't know what forever is... but I think it feels like love.

So I wait.
Still hopeful.

They used to keep me in a cage. It was small, cold, and dark. I didn't have a name—just an itch that never went away, an empty belly, and a body that hurt. I had ringworm that turned into dermatitis because no one treated me. No one cared.

Until someone finally did.

The people at the clinic were gentle. They gave me food, medicine, and soft voices. They called me Alpha—they said it means strong. I didn't feel strong at first, but their kindness helped me believe I could be.

I've been healing. I'm still getting treatment, but I don't hide in corners anymore. I've learned to play, to trust, to wag my tail when someone smiles at me. Other dogs are becoming my friends. People too.

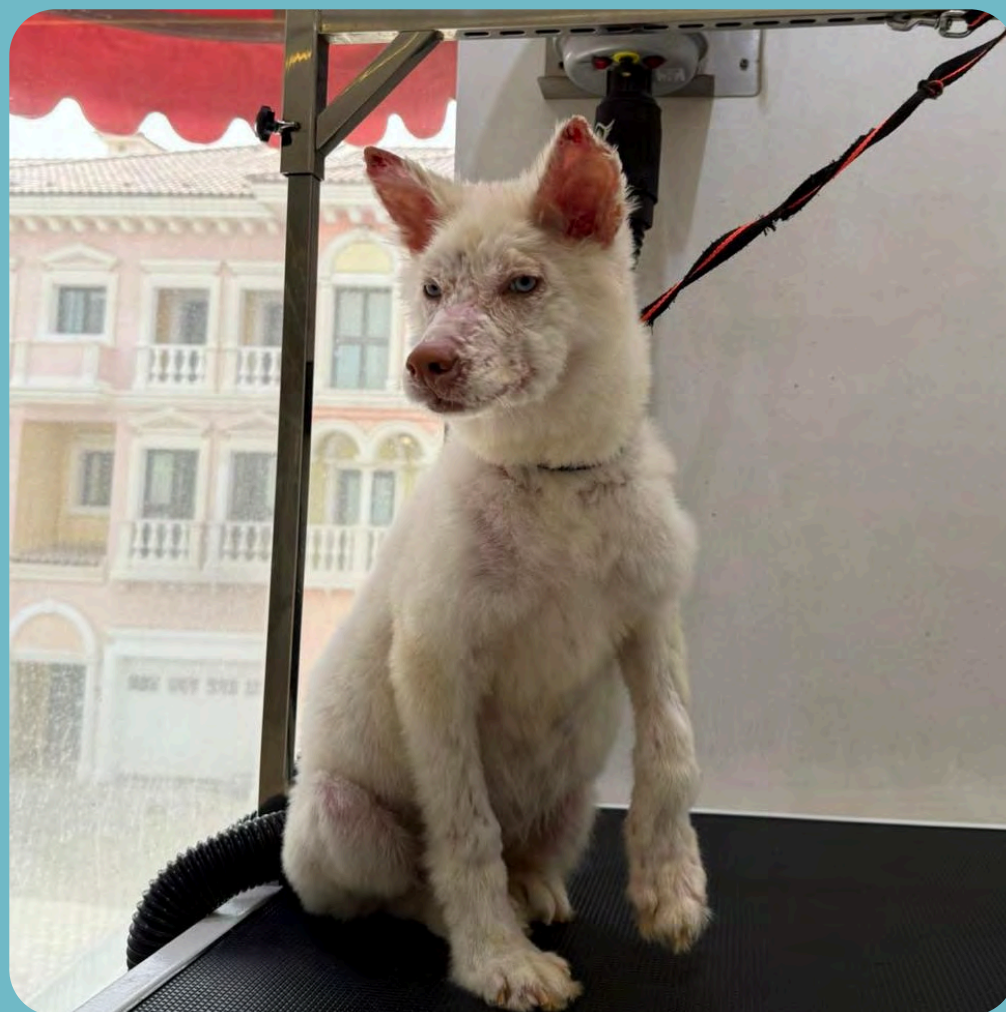

Now, I dream about something new: a home. A warm bed. A safe yard. A quiet hand on my back. Someone who sees not just what I've been through—but who I'm becoming.

My name is Alpha. I'm ready to love, and I'm ready to be loved.

🐾 I'm Caesar — Don't Judge Me by My Breed or My Past ❤️

They call me Caesar — a strong name, I know.

But behind the name, the cropped ears, and the missing tail... I'm just a gentle soul looking for love. I was picked up by the police, and that usually comes with a label: "aggressive."

But I wasn't. I was just scared, confused, and alone.

People look at me and see a "tough dog" — but what they don't see is how I lean in for cuddles, how I get excited just to see a friendly face, how I wag my whole back (since I've got no tail left to wag).

Yes... whoever had me before cut my tail and cropped my ears — not for medical reasons, but to make me look more intimidating.

Some humans do this to dogs of certain breeds to make them appear like "guard dogs" — tougher, meaner... It's not only unnecessary, it's painful and cruel. And I had no choice.

Luckily, FurKids saw past all of that. They looked into my eyes and saw hope, not harm. They offered to take me from the police shelter — and that's when my new story began.

Now I'm safe. I'm thriving. I'm kind, playful, and just want a human to call my own. I get along with people, and all I ask is that you give me a chance. Because I'm not a breed.

I'm not a reputation.

I'm just Caesar — and I'm ready for my forever home 🐾

Hi, I'm Nadya, a Saluki girl with a quiet heart and a long story.

For most of my life, I lived in a cage. I was trained for racing and hunting, and that was all I was ever meant to be. No soft beds, no walks just for fun, no one asking if I was happy... just routines, results, and bars around me.

When my racing days ended, so did that life.

That's when FurKids stepped in — not to ask how fast I could run, but to ask how I was doing. For the first time, someone cared about me, not what I could do.

Now, I'm learning the beauty of freedom, of sun on my back and kind hands on my fur. I'm calm, sweet, and gentle — and I love being around both people and other dogs. I may be quiet, but once you get to know me, you'll feel how much love I've been holding in all these years. ❤️

I'm not looking for a track. I'm looking for a home. Maybe it's yours?

They named me Nejma — it means “star” in Arabic.

But for most of my life, I didn’t feel like one.

I was kept in a cage, trained for racing and hunting, expected to perform, never to just be. No one cared if I was happy, tired, or scared — only if I could run.

Days turned into years... and I waited behind bars, wondering if there was more to life.

Then, one day, everything changed.

✨ FurKids came for me — not to judge how fast I was, but to finally let me just be a dog.

Now, I’m safe. I’m free. I’m healing. And I’m starting to discover a world full of softness and second chances.

I’m gentle, calm, and peaceful. I get along beautifully with other dogs and kind humans. All I need is a quiet home, a warm bed, and someone who sees that I’ve always been a star — just waiting for the right sky.

I'm Kai, and my story began with heartbreak... 💔

Me and my best friend Sooty were dumped on the street — just like that, left under the burning sun with no food, no water, and no clue how to survive. One day, we saw a kind man walking his dogs... so we followed him, tail wagging, hearts full of hope. When he got into his car, we jumped in — not to steal a ride, but to beg for a home.

We thought maybe, just maybe, he could take us back to where we once belonged...

But he couldn't.

So he gently placed us down... and drove away.

We ran after his car, as far and fast as we could, until we couldn't run anymore.

💔 We didn't want to be forgotten.

When FurKids heard what happened, they came for us. They didn't just pick us up — they gave us our lives back. Since then, we've been safe, loved, and finally learning what it feels like to be wanted.

✨ I'm smaller than your average husky, but I've got a HUGE heart.

✨ I love other dogs and every human I meet.

✨ I'm gentle, loyal, and honestly — when you meet me, you'll fall in love. I promise.

We all deserve a second chance. Will you be mine? 🐾💙

Me and my best friend Kai — we've been through everything together.

We were left wandering the streets, under the scorching sun, confused and hungry. We didn't know how to survive. We didn't even know how to find food.

One day, we spotted a man walking his dogs... and we followed him, silently begging for help. When he got into his car, we both jumped right in — not because we were scared... but because we hoped maybe he'd take us home.

He couldn't keep us, so he gently asked us to get out. But as he drove away, we chased his car, as far as our legs could carry us. I remember the dust, the heat... and the heartbreak of being left behind again.

Then, something beautiful happened.

💛 FurKids heard what happened, and they came for us. They didn't see strays — they saw souls worth saving. They scooped us up and promised us we'd never be forgotten again.

I'm Sooty — sweet, gentle, and a little more reserved than Kai. But once I trust you, I'll stay by your side forever. I get along with dogs, I adore people, and I dream of a quiet home with someone who'll never walk away.

They call me Assia. I was found on the side of a highway with my three tiny puppies. No food. No water. Just the heat, the noise, and the fear. But I stayed—for them.

I did everything I could to keep them alive. Curled my body around them at night, went without food so they could nurse. Every day I worried: How will we survive one more day?

Then, someone stopped. Kind eyes. Gentle hands. They brought us to safety, to the shelter. Warm blankets, full bowls, soft voices. For the first time, we were safe.

Now, my puppies are strong and ready for their forever homes.

And me?

I'm still waiting. I gave them everything I had, and now... I just want someone to choose me. Not because I'm a mom or a survivor—just because I'm Assia, and I deserve love too.

I don't know why they left me. One day I was part of a family, running and playing like any young husky should. The next, I was alone—dumped on the streets with no food, no shelter, and no one to call my own.

I wandered for days, confused and scared. Cars rushed by, people stared, but no one stopped. I was hungry, cold, and starting to lose hope.

Then, something changed.

A kind lady saw me. Really saw me. She knelt down, spoke to me like I mattered, and offered me food. Her hands were gentle. Her voice was warm. She didn't walk away—she took me with her, off those cold streets and into safety.

Now I'm somewhere warm, with food in my bowl and kind people around me. But deep down, I still long for what I lost—a home, a family, love that stays.

I'm Bianca. I may have been abandoned, but I haven't given up. I'm still full of love, and I'm ready to give it to someone who will never let me go again.

I'm Eddie. I'm nine years old, and I used to be a senior dog with a family—until one day, I wasn't. Me and my sibling were left alone in a big, scary compound. They separated us, so I was all by myself. I waited. I waited and waited. Every day, I hoped someone would come.

My mouth hurt so badly that eating was painful. When I was finally rescued, the nice people took me to the vet. They found out my teeth were in really bad shape—rotten and hurting me all the time. The vet cleaned my teeth, pulled out the ones that were broken, and gave me medicine so the pain would stop. It was the first time in a long time that I felt relief.

Now, I live in a warm, loving foster home. I'm safe. I'm happy. I'm ready to find a forever family who will never leave me alone again. I'm Eddie, and I'm waiting.

I don't remember much—just the car driving off and the silence after. I was alone, scared, and hiding in the bushes of a quiet neighborhood. People left food and water, but I was too afraid to come close.

One lady kept coming back. She never pushed, just sat nearby and spoke gently. Day after day, her kindness chipped away at my fear.

Eventually, after months, I stopped running. I sniffed her hand. It smelled like safety. I liked the dog she was walking too. Maybe we could be friends.

She took me in and named me Prince. Now I temporarily live with her and my sister Yuki, who was rescued too. We have warm beds, full bowls, and quiet naps side by side.

The kind lady says I'm waiting for my forever home. But now, I wait with hope—because I know what love feels like and I'm starting to trust these humans.

The first thing I remember is the silence.

One day, my people were there—and then they weren't. They drove away and left me in a place with tall houses, hard roads, and strangers who passed me by. I waited. At first, I thought they would come back. But days turned into weeks, and weeks into something longer.

My belly ached often. Most people walked past me without a glance. Some looked at me with pity, but no one stopped.

But then—there was him.

Every evening, when the sky turned soft with orange light, a man came. His hands were gentle when he set down food and water. The sound of the bowls on the ground became my favorite sound. He never tried to catch me or force me, just let me eat in peace. Slowly, I began to wag maybe my tail when I saw him. I think he saw me as more than just a stray.

It was around that time I met her—the cat. He was small, clever, and brave, with eyes that gleamed even in the dark. Soon we started sharing quiet corners together, curling up side by side when the air turned cold. She made me laugh in the way she would pounce on shadows, and she reminded me I wasn't completely alone. He became my brother, my best friend, my reason to keep hoping.

Luckily we're both now at a place called the sanctuary. Here, I have a room that's mine, clean water and food, and people who smile when they see me. My cat friend, Catalanian is safe too—he visits me often, and we still nap together.

For the first time in a long time, I'm not waiting for someone who will never come back. Now, I'm waiting for someone new. Someone who will look into my eyes and see not a stray, not a shadow, but Belle—a dog who has been lost, who has been found, and who is ready to belong.

I am waiting for my forever home. (Maybe it can even be with my best friend, Catalanian!)

I remember once, a long time ago, I had a person. I had a name, a soft bed, and hands that would scratch behind my ears. I didn't know anything else, and I thought it would last forever.

But one day, everything changed. The car ride ended in a place I didn't recognize—an empty, noisy stretch of buildings and smoke. My person left me there. I waited for them to come back, but they never did.

The nights were the hardest at first. Cold concrete. Growling stomach. The strange sounds of machines and the sting of loneliness. But I wasn't alone for long. Other dogs found me—dogs who had the same look in their eyes that I carried. Lost. Left behind. We weren't family by blood, but we became one by need. We learned how to survive together— Nitro, Felix, Bijou and I.

Food and water were never easy to find. Some days we got lucky—a scrap from a bin, a puddle of water.. Other days, we went hungry. Still, we stayed side by side, keeping each other warm, keeping each other safe. In that rough place, friendship was all we had.

But deep inside me, I never stopped hoping. Hoping for the sound of kind footsteps. Hoping for someone to see me not as a stray, but as a friend. Hoping for a forever home.

Now, I'm ready. I know what it means to go without, and I know how to treasure love when it's given. I may have been left once, but I still have love to give—more than ever.

I am Chicky. I've walked the hard roads, I've waited in the cold, and I've survived the silence. Now, I'm ready to belong again.

Could you be the one to bring me home?

When I grew older, I was kept only to produce more like me. My body was tired, but my spirit never broke—I always dreamed of something beyond the fences.

Now I am free. I was rescued with Barq and Raad. I walk on real grass, and I am learning that hands can be gentle and voices kind. I am elegant and gentle, quiet and sensitive, still a little shy, but every day I grow braver. I don't run because I'm chased anymore—I run because it feels like freedom.

Running should feel like wind in your chest and joy in your legs—but there, it felt like pressure, like there was no choice.

When I was no longer fast enough, I was kept for breeding. I dreamed of wide open spaces, of kind hands, of being more than a number on a chart.

Now, life is different. I have soft places to rest and time to simply be. I am elegant, gentle, and calm, carrying myself with quiet dignity. I am learning that people can be patient, that love doesn't come with demands. Sometimes I am still cautious, but hope grows in me every day.

I am ready for a forever home. Choose me, and I will give you loyalty, trust, and the soft devotion of a heart that has waited a long time to be truly seen.

My name is Raad, which means thunder in Arabic. For most of my life, I knew only the racing and breeding farm. The track was my world—hard ground, gates that snapped open, and the endless chase of something I could never catch. I ran because I had to, not because I wanted to. When I wasn't running, I was kept for breeding, my worth measured only in what I could give, never in who I was.

But that life is behind me now. Today I am discovering what freedom feels like. I rest on blankets instead of concrete, I walk on soft grass, and I am learning that hands can bring comfort, not commands. I carry myself with quiet strength—elegant, gentle, and noble. Sometimes the old fears linger, but every day I find more courage.

Our Responsibility

1. Providing all necessary expenses for food, supplies, and veterinary care to ensure the dog's health and well-being.
2. Transporting the dog as needed, including driving to veterinary appointments or other necessary destinations.

4. Arranging all logistics related to the adoption process, including paperwork, home visits, and follow-up appointments.
5. Providing ongoing support and guidance to both the foster dog and potential adopters throughout the fostering and adoption process.

Your Responsibility

Foster responsibility entails ensuring the dog receives at least two 30-minute walks daily with a leash, prioritizing the safety of the dog, promptly informing us about any emergencies or updates, refraining from handing the dog to anyone else without prior knowledge, and showering the dog with plenty of love and affection, including lots of kisses.
