Meet Our Medium to Big Furkids

DECEMBER

Our journey began in 2021, with Nagham Badawi's personal passion for rescuing dogs in need. What started with a single act of kindness quickly grew into a powerful community effort — a mission fueled by incredible partners, volunteers, and supporters who believe every life deserves a second chance.

In the early days, we operated fully through a foster-based network, giving dogs safety, love, and care in home environments, while working toward a bigger vision — a true home for our rescues.

Thanks to this community, we've been able to rehabilitate, rehome, or assist over 300 dogs, spreading hope both locally and internationally.

On May 2nd, 2025, that dream became reality as we proudly opened the doors to Furkids Sanctuary, now the largest and happiest independent dog rescue sanctuary in Qatar.

Furkids Sanctuary is proudly kennel-free, offering more than 70 furkids a safe, loving environment where they are socialized daily through activities, events, and the constant care of volunteers who prepare them for their forever families. At Furkids Sanctuary, we are not just a place — we are a family.

A community where every paw finds love, and every heart finds joy.

Having a pet
General Guideline

HAVING A PET

Are you ready?

Having a pet can be one of the most rewarding experiences, where you're met with genuine love and form an eternal bond. However, it's crucial to ensure you're truly ready for the commitment.

Owning a pet means committing to their well-being for potentially over 15 years. It requires financial stability to cover medical expenses, potential relocations, and ensuring your accommodation is pet-friendly. Additionally, life changes such as marriage or having kids shouldn't lead to abandoning your furry friend.

Regular exercise is vital, with a minimum of two walks a day being necessary. While we provide behavior analysis for our dogs, many have experienced trauma, so being prepared to provide training and work with specialists is essential if behavioral issues arise.

We firmly believe that our dogs deserve to be part of a loving family and should live indoors, not relegated to the backyard or other outdoor arrangements. By adopting a pet, you're making a lifelong commitment to their happiness and well-being.

And trust us, the gratitude and happy moments that will be added to your life will be worth the effort you're making.

I used to live near the big stadium in Lusail, with my friend Luz. We were scared of people, but we never wanted to hurt anyone. We just wanted to be left alone.

Before the World Cup, everything changed. The area was being cleared, and we had nowhere to hide. Trucks came. My sibling Luz and I were the last ones left.

Then someone came who didn't chase us away. She waited. She spoke gently. She brought food. Slowly, we got closer. She didn't scare us—she saw us.

That's when everything changed.

We were rescued. The car ride was scary, but Luz was by my side. Now, we're safe. We have shelter, gentle hands, and full hearts.

We are a bit scared and shy. People call us "sweet girls" now.

They're right.

If I have my toys and yummy food I'm happy. I'll be happier when I have those in a forever home. 7

I didn't understand what was happening. One moment, I was playing like any happy pup. The next, I was alone—no home, no family, no one calling my name.

I wandered the streets, confused and scared. People passed by. Some glanced, most didn't. I was hungry, tired, and starting to wonder if anyone would ever really see me.

And then, someone did. She saw me. She offered food, spoke gently, and gave me something I hadn't felt in a long time: safety.

Now I'm in a warm place, with people who care. I'm safe. I'm healing. But I'm still waiting for something more—a real home. A forever kind of love.

I should probably mention something... My teeth? They're a little different from other dogs'. They give me a quirky little smile that makes me stand out. Some might see them as "imperfect," but I think they just make me me. I may look a little different—but I'm still beautiful. And I promise, I've got the kindest heart to match.

I'm Loki. I've been let down before, but I haven't given up. I'm still hoping for someone who sees past the scars and the quirks—to the loyal, loving soul underneath.

I used to live near the Lusail stadium with my best friend, Marley. Back then, we were scared of people—not because we were bad, just because no one had ever been kind to us. We kept to the shadows, hoping to stay safe while the world around us got louder and emptier.

Then everything changed. The area was being cleared before the World Cup. Marley and I were the last ones left.

Then came her. The woman who didn't shout, didn't chase. She brought food and patience. Every day, she sat quietly, letting us come closer when we were ready.

That's when I learned what trust feels like.

She rescued us together. I was scared in the car, but Marley kept me brave. Now, I live in a shelter, still with Marley.

I still have my quirks: I'm not a fan of cats, and I get along better with big dogs than the little ones. But I love humans—especially the ones who let me curl up on the sofa. My favorite treats? Carrots! Crunchy, sweet, and mine.

They call me a "sweet girl" now—and it finally feels true.

I can't wait for the day where I get to eat my favourite treats on a sofa in my very own forever home!

Hello, I'm Bruno ,
And I got a story to tell,,

Life took a rather adventurous turn for me and my buddy Loki. We were both dumped on a dog beach, but Loki was the more outgoing one. He'd play with all the dogs who came with their humans, but they'd all leave eventually, and it'd be just us two.

I preferred to stay in the background, hiding away until one day, fate had different plans. On that day, I summoned up the courage to join Loki and some other dogs for a playdate. Little did I know, a rescuer was on the scene, and she decided to rescue my brother Loki. He went right up to her, but I hung back, feeling a tad bit nervous.

I watched as she loaded Loki into her car, and I decided it was now or never. After about an hour, I mustered all my bravery and jumped right into the car with Loki. From that moment, I knew I'd found someone special, and we were in it together.

Sure, I might be a bit of a challenge at first, but once we build trust, I promise there's a whole lot of love I'm ready to give. I'm on the lookout for my forever home now, and I can't wait to be your loyal companion. 🐾❤️

My adventure began on a dog beach, where I was sadly abandoned alongside my buddy, Bruno. We were left all alone, searching for food and a bit of shade under the scorching sun. Life was suddenly very hard — we had no idea how to survive on our own. Still, I tried to stay positive (I'm that kind of pup!). I started playing with other dogs on the beach, and luckily, some kind humans noticed me and shared their food. It helped for a while, but I was still losing weight and getting weaker.

Then came the day everything changed — a rescuer arrived. I walked straight up to her and accepted the leash without hesitation. It was like I knew my chance had finally come. That moment was the start of a new chapter in my life.

But I must be honest — I carry some emotional scars. I had been mistreated before, and it left me feeling unsure around new people at first. I'm now in a loving foster home and working with a trainer to rebuild my confidence. Once I trust someone, I shower them with love — I adore cuddles, hugs, and sitting right on your lap (that's my favorite thing ever!). ❤️

When it comes to other dogs, I'm pretty awesome with calm males or females — I love to play and hang out with them. But if an alpha dog tries to boss me around, I'll stand my ground (fair enough, right?). Just like humans, I have my circle — I choose the dogs I vibe with. 🐕🌟

I'm ready for a home that understands that healing takes patience and love. I promise, once I know you're my person, I'll give you all the affection and loyalty in the world.

Hi, I'm Miles 🐾

I still remember the day my life changed—June 14th, 2023. I was hurt, my leg was broken, and I didn't know what would happen to me. But then, I found myself hiding under a car. I don't know if it was luck or fate, but that's where kind humans noticed me and decided I deserved another chance.

I was so young, still hopeful, even though my leg ached. I got the care I needed, and slowly, I began to heal. After that, I was given a foster home for 5 months. Oh, I loved it there—especially the kids. I'd try to curl up on top of them like I was a tiny teacup pup. (I still think I'm small, even though apparently, I'm not! 😊)

The truth is, I love children. Their laughter, their energy—it makes me wag my tail endlessly. The I'm also very affectionate with all people. I'm confident, outgoing, and I've never been shy about making new friends.

And oh boy, do I love my toys and treats! Give me a squeaky toy or a tasty snack, and I'll show you just how happy I can be. I'm also really food-motivated, which means I'm always eager to learn and work for rewards.

I was potty trained once, but being back in a shelter has been confusing for me, and I might need a little refresher. I know I can do it again with patience and guidance.

Now I'm living at the Furkids Sanctuary, waiting patiently for my forever home. I may not be the tiny lap dog I imagine myself to be, but I promise I have a giant heart full of love to give. All I want is a family who will see me for who I am: a goofy, affectionate, confident, big-hearted boy named Miles. 💙

Hello, I'm HOPE,
the mix Husky with cute face,,,,,

I've had quite an adventure! You see, I was once abandoned by my owner and left to fend for myself. Luckily, there was a kind lady who rescued me after long desperate days in the heat in the suburb area with neither food nor water, i was very skinny, dehydrated outdoor in the harsh hot weather... I was transfered to a nice villa of dogs and cats foster with other rescued dogs and immediately i made new friends especially my best friend Flic, a husky Boy, that i play a lot with him. I am a very dynamic dog love to play around with dogs, cats and kids also that live in our foster villa. I had a chance to be rescued as i transformed from a very scared dog to a happy and healthy one. Now, I'm eagerly looking forward to finding a forever home filled with love and care, just like the bond I share with my rescuer. 🐾❤️ the biggest and strongest of my siblings, always ready for an adventure!

Hello, I'm Hermes,

My story began with my mom, Hera, a Turkish Shepherd mix, and my dad, a Saluki mix. When Mom was rescued, she surprised everyone by giving birth to me and my 10 siblings just ten days later. She even kept it a secret from the vet, showing how much she wanted to protect us.

Out of the 10 of us, 8 survived, and 3 of my siblings have already found their forever homes. But my sisters Maia, Rhea, and brothers Cearus and Arus and I are still waiting at the boarding place. People often overlook us because of our size, but here's the truth—the bigger we are, the more love we have to give!

I'm full of energy and always up for a challenge. I love being around people and thrive on their affection. My adventurous spirit drives me to explore and have fun, and I'd love nothing more than to share that joy with a family of my own. I'll admit, I have a playful streak and can't resist chasing cats—it's just so much fun!

Could you be the one to see past my size and give me the forever home I've been dreaming of? I promise to fill your life with love, loyalty, and plenty of laughs. 🐾❤️

It all began when I was just a little pup, a few months old, left on the side of a bustling highway. Without my mom or any guidance, I faced some tough times, including a run-in with a car that left me injured and abandoned.

But fate had other plans for me. A kind-hearted soul came to my rescue, scooping me up and rushing me to the vet for the care I desperately needed. Hello, I'm Patches, 🐾❤️

My last beach adventure turned into an unexpected chapter of abandonment. My family took me to the beach, and I eagerly anticipated a day filled with joy and sun-soaked fun. However, my excitement turned to shock when they left me alone in the sand.

Days passed, and I waited, hoping they would return, but they never did. I found solace in playing with the dogs that visited the beach with their families. However, the joy was fleeting as they all left, leaving me alone to sleep on the cold sand at night.

One day, a kind soul appeared with his dogs, and I found a new sense of belonging. He couldn't bear to leave me behind, and so he took me in. Now, I'm surrounded by many new friends, eagerly awaiting a family that will not only take me to a real beach day and give me bath me when we're home. Could you be the one to make my dreams of a loving family come true? 🏖️🐾

hi i am lusail

a gentle soul with a story of survival and hope. I used to live in a construction site in Lusail with my friends. We had each other, and even though life wasn't easy, we made it work. But one by one, my friends were trapped and taken by the municipality. I was so afraid that I kept my distance and stayed hidden.

For a whole year, I lived alone. A kind lady brought me food every day, but I was too scared to come close. Without my friends, I had no one to play with, and my days felt long and lonely.

Now, I'm in a boarding place, and though I get along with the other dogs, I don't play with them. I'm still learning to trust humans again after everything I've been through. It's a slow process, but I'm getting there. Food is my biggest comfort, and if you have a treat, I'll happily come to you!

I'm very calm by nature and believe a quiet, peaceful home would help me thrive. With time, patience, and love, I know I can learn to trust fully and show you just how special I am.

I'm in the most need of a forever home where I can feel safe, loved, and start to truly heal. Could you be the one to give me that chance? I promise to be a gentle and loving companion, grateful for every moment of kindness you share. 🐾❤️

Hi, I'm Lucy!

My story began when I was just a puppy. I was bought by a family along with my brother "Pixel", but from the age of 2 months to one year, I was tied in the courtyard. During this time, I developed a severe eye infection that wasn't treated, which led to my blindness.

Despite this, I assure you, I am very smart! I've learned how to walk next to you and sit on command. With a bit of patience, I can learn very quickly. I can even learn the layout of the house so I won't bump into anything. You will be surprised by my capabilities.

I get very attached to my human and absolutely love cuddling and giving kisses. I'm very gentle with everyone I meet and try to play with other dogs, too. I just need a chance to have a loving home. It wasn't my fault that I became blind, and if I had a choice, I would have gone to the vet myself to be treated.

I hope to find a heart that can see my real soul, beyond my disabilities.

Love,
Lucy

Hi, I'm Pixel!!

Just like my sister Lucy, I was bought by a family when I was a puppy. From the age of 2 months to one year, we were tied in the courtyard. While Lucy lost her sight due to an untreated eye infection, I remained healthy and strong.

I am a Belgian Malinois, and I'm known for my intelligence and agility. I'm super smart and can learn new commands and tricks very quickly. I need a family who is willing to use my intelligence and train me properly. I am super active and love to play. I thrive on physical and mental stimulation, so I need a home that can keep up with my energy levels.

Even though my sister and I had a tough start, I am full of potential and ready to find a loving home that will appreciate my abilities and give me the opportunity to shine.

If you're looking for a loyal, smart, and energetic companion, I might just be the perfect match for you. (X)

Hi, I'm Bentley!

I was abandoned in a small park between two main streets. I was so scared that I stayed there for two days without moving or eating. Some kind people gave me water, but no one tried to help because they thought I was paralyzed and worried about the medical costs.

Then, Furkids heard my story and saw all the people sharing my stories with no one helping me they took me in. The moment I got into the car, I stood up, and at the clinic, I was walking normally. It turns out I was just too afraid and waiting for my previous family to come back and nothing wrong with my health .

Now, I'm with my siblings, and I am really gentle and sweet. I love to follow you. I'm always ready to brighten your day with my wagging tail and loving nature. I'm looking for a loving home where I can feel safe and cherished, and where I can finally have my own family to love and protect.

All was good in my life as a normal puppy until one day my companion, Ollie, and I were dumped in the street. Another family found me, still wearing a collar and decided I was too sweet to suffer in the extreme summer heat. They vaccinated me, spayed me and helped me become ready for my new life.

I am super goofy and playful. I am so happy to be around people and other dogs. My favourite things are belly rubs, cuddling. I am a lot of fun. The more love I get, the more I give back.

I am looking for a forever home and would love to join a family with kids or other dogs. I think cats would be fun too but I have never lived with one. If you can spend quality time with me, you'll become my favourite person!

Ollie is now adopted and super happy. I am happy for him but I am also wishing ^{for} for my turn.

🐾💖 Hi, I'm Bella 💖🐾

I was born in a parking lot near the Gold Souq, one of 7 little puppies. Life started very hard for me... some of my siblings were lost in a shooting, and while a few were lucky to find homes, I stayed behind, scared and injured. My mom and dad are still alive, but they live in a shelter now. For many days, I hid in the bushes, too frightened of humans and nursing my wounds. Then one day, kind rescuers found me and promised me I would never know the streets again.

🌸 Now I'm ready for something I've never had before: a forever home. 🌸

I'm a sweet and playful girl. I love being petted, I enjoy playing with other dogs, and I will shower you with loyalty. But I must be honest—I can't resist chasing cats, so a cat-free home would be best for me. 🐕✨

Please give me the chance to be part of your family. I've already survived so much, and all I dream of now is love, safety, and cuddles. 💖

Hi, I'm Freddie! 🐾❤️

I was dumped in the desert by my irresponsible owner, left to fend for myself without anyone knowing I was there. During the search for my friend Patrick, who was also abandoned, the Furkids team stumbled upon me lying in the scorching heat, suffering from heatstroke.

I was literally saved by just 30 minutes between me and death, as Huskies like me can't handle extreme temperatures—especially in August when it soared above 45 degrees Celsius here in Qatar.

Luckily, the kind-hearted team rescued me just in time!

I'm super friendly and playful! After my rescue, I can't express how grateful I am for the second chance at life. I'm a passionate dog who loves being close to humans. I adore cuddling, playing with both people and other dogs, and bringing joy to everyone around me.

If you're looking for a fun, happy dog to brighten your days and fill your life with love, then pick me! I promise to love you forever! ❤️

PATRICK

Hi, I'm Patrick! 🐾❤️

I was dumped in the desert by my irresponsible owner, left to fend for myself without anyone knowing I was there. During the search for my friend Freddie, who was also abandoned, the Furkids team stumbled upon me lying in the scorching heat, suffering from heatstroke.

I was literally saved by just 30 minutes between me and death, as Huskies like me can't handle extreme temperatures—especially in August when it soared above 45 degrees Celsius here in Qatar.

Luckily, the kind-hearted team rescued me just in time!

I'm super friendly and playful! After my rescue, I can't express how grateful I am for the second chance at life. I'm a passionate dog who loves being close to humans. I adore cuddling, playing with both people and other dogs, and bringing joy to everyone around me.

If you're looking for a fun, happy dog to brighten your days and fill your life with love, then pick me! I promise to love you forever! ❤️

✨ Hi, my name is Dahab – which means Gold in Arabic ✨

And just like my name, I am truly like gold for my rescuer and everyone who knows me.

I was once the youngest in a group of six stray dogs living in a very busy residential area. Humans didn't welcome us, so I grew up hiding, running away anytime someone came near. Trusting people was never easy for me.

But then she found me... my rescuer. She started feeding my little tribe every single day, no matter how hard it was. At first, I only ate from a distance, keeping my space. But little by little, something changed... I started waiting for her every day. And when she arrived with my favorite treat – chicken necks – I would dance with joy, wagging and spinning, even though I still didn't let her touch me.

For more than four years, she never gave up on me. She tried many times to rescue me, but I was too afraid. Until last August – finally, I let her take me with her. At first, I was terrified, I didn't understand why I was taken away from my tribe. But then I remembered... the trust we had built for years, the love in her eyes. That's when I began to feel safe, and to believe that my new life was finally starting.

Now, I am a lovely, kind, and very smart girl. I love to play, I love to dance when I'm happy, and I'm learning that humans can mean love, safety, and joy. 🌸 49

I am Dahab, and my story is proof that patience and love can turn fear into gold. 🐾💛

Hi, my name is Buddy

I am 1 year old. When I was younger, I remember being left by my owners in the scorching summer heat of Doha, with a rope cable-tied around my neck as a collar. It was so scary to be left alone until something wonderful happened. I was rescued and brought to a foster home where I finally felt safe.

I settled down there, and for the first time, I felt like I belonged. My new owners looked after me and started training me and I have been picking up basic commands pretty well. I am still learning manners and need a patient owner to help me learn even more. I know there's a family out there for me too.

I get on well with slightly older kids but am still a little excitable for very young ones. I have my full throttle moments and need some exercise everyday. I love playing fetch and just being around people. I have so much love to offer. Please open your hearts and home to me. I promise to be a good boy and will respond well to a calm owner who will take time to teach me the right way to behave.

Hi i am chase ,
a playful and protective pup with a big heart!
My story began when my family left me behind, dumping me near a highway. I didn't know what to do or where to go, so I wandered until I found a kind lady who was feeding stray cats in the area. I was so hungry that I started eating from the cats' food, but I had to protect it because I was scared I wouldn't find food again.

Even though I was nervous and unsure, I loved playing with her little daughter whenever they came by. Those moments gave me a little hope and reminded me of the love I was missing.

Eventually, the kind lady couldn't bear to see me struggle anymore, so she rescued me and gave me a chance at a better life. Now, I'm staying in a boarding place where I've been enjoying playing with other dogs and discovering what it's like to feel safe again.

But as much as I'm grateful for my new friends, I dream of having a home of my own. I'm a very cute boy who loves people, but I still don't like to share my food—I learned to protect it when I was on my own. With a little patience and understanding, I know I can thrive in a loving home.

Could you be the one to give me the forever home
I've been waiting for? I promise to fill your life with fun, loyalty, and lots of love. 🐾❤️

I was just a tiny puppy when the world felt big and cold. I had no mother, no siblings—only the hard ground beneath me and the space between two cars to hide in. I didn't cry anymore. No one ever came when I did.

Until one day, someone did.

She moved gently, spoke softly, and smelled like something warm and safe. When she picked me up, I felt a heartbeat against my body. I hadn't felt that in a long time. I stopped shaking.

She took me to a place with bright lights and kind hands. They gave me shelter, food, and a name—Maple. They said I was sweet and soft like the tree.

Now I'm safe, warm, and growing stronger every day.

I've spent my puppy years surrounded by other rescue animals. It has been safe and comfortable but now I'm ready for my own home.

They used to keep me in a cage. It was small, cold, and dark. I didn't have a name—just an itch that never went away, an empty belly, and a body that hurt. I had ringworm that turned into dermatitis because no one treated me. No one cared.

Until someone finally did.

The people at the clinic were gentle. They gave me food, medicine, and soft voices. They called me Alpha—they said it means strong. I didn't feel strong at first, but their kindness helped me believe I could be.

I've been healing. I'm still getting treatment, but I don't hide in corners anymore. I've learned to play, to trust, to wag my tail when someone smiles at me. Other dogs are becoming my friends. People too.

Now, I dream about something new: a home. A warm bed. A safe yard. A quiet hand on my back. Someone who sees not just what I've been through—but who I'm becoming.

My name is Alpha. I'm ready to love, and I'm ready to be loved.

🐾 I'm Caesar — Don't Judge Me by My Breed or My Past ❤️

They call me Caesar — a strong name, I know.

But behind the name, the cropped ears, and the missing tail... I'm just a gentle soul looking for love. I was picked up by the police, and that usually comes with a label: "aggressive."

But I wasn't. I was just scared, confused, and alone.

People look at me and see a "tough dog" — but what they don't see is how I lean in for cuddles, how I get excited just to see a friendly face, how I wag my whole back (since I've got no tail left to wag).

Yes... whoever had me before cut my tail and cropped my ears — not for medical reasons, but to make me look more intimidating.

Some humans do this to dogs of certain breeds to make them appear like "guard dogs" — tougher, meaner... It's not only unnecessary, it's painful and cruel. And I had no choice.

Luckily, FurKids saw past all of that. They looked into my eyes and saw hope, not harm. They offered to take me from the police shelter — and that's when my new story began.

Now I'm safe. I'm thriving. I'm kind, playful, and just want a human to call my own. I get along with people, and all I ask is that you give me a chance. Because I'm not a breed.

I'm not a reputation.

I'm just Caesar — and I'm ready for my forever home 🐾

I did everything I could to keep them alive. Curled my body around them at night, went without food so they could nurse. Every day I worried: How will we survive one more day?

Then, someone stopped. Kind eyes. Gentle hands. They brought us to safety, to the shelter. Warm blankets, full bowls, soft voices. For the first time, we were safe.

Now, my puppies are strong and ready for their forever homes.

And me?

I'm still waiting. I gave them everything I had, and now... I just want someone to choose me. Not because I'm a mom or a survivor—just because I'm Assia⁶³, and I deserve love too.

I don't know why they left me. One day I was part of a family, running and playing like any young husky should. The next, I was alone—dumped on the streets with no food, no shelter, and no one to call my own.

I wandered for days, confused and scared. Cars rushed by, people stared, but no one stopped. I was hungry, cold, and starting to lose hope.

Then, something changed.

A kind lady saw me. Really saw me. She knelt down, spoke to me like I mattered, and offered me food. Her hands were gentle. Her voice was warm. She didn't walk away—she took me with her, off those cold streets and into safety.

Now I'm somewhere warm, with food in my bowl and kind people around me. But deep down, I still long for what I lost—a home, a family, love that stays.

I'm Bianca. I may have been abandoned, but I haven't given up. I'm still full of love, and I'm ready to give it to someone who will never let me go again.

Eventually, after months, I stopped running. I sniffed her hand. It smelled like safety. I liked the dog she was walking too. Maybe we could be friends.

She took me in and named me Prince. Now I temporarily live with her and my sister Yuki, who was rescued too. We have warm beds, full bowls, and quiet naps side by side.

When I grew older, I was kept only to produce more like me. My body was tired, but my spirit never broke—I always dreamed of something beyond the fences.

Now I am free. I was rescued with Barq and Raad. I walk on real grass, and I am learning that hands can be gentle and voices kind. I am elegant and gentle, quiet and sensitive, still a little shy, but every day I grow braver. I don't run because I'm chased anymore—I run because it feels like freedom.

Running should feel like wind in your chest and joy in your legs—but there, it felt like pressure, like there was no choice.

When I was no longer fast enough, I was kept for breeding. I dreamed of wide open spaces, of kind hands, of being more than a number on a chart.

Now, life is different. I have soft places to rest and time to simply be. I am elegant, gentle, and calm, carrying myself with quiet dignity. I am learning that people can be patient, that love doesn't come with demands. Sometimes I am still cautious, but hope grows in me every day.

My name is Raad, which means thunder in Arabic. For most of my life, I knew only the racing and breeding farm. The track was my world—hard ground, gates that snapped open, and the endless chase of something I could never catch. I ran because I had to, not because I wanted to. When I wasn't running, I was kept for breeding, my worth measured only in what I could give, never in who I was.

But that life is behind me now. Today I am discovering what freedom feels like. I rest on blankets instead of concrete, I walk on soft grass, and I am learning that hands can bring comfort, not commands. I carry myself with quiet strength—elegant, gentle, and noble. Sometimes the old fears linger, but every day I find more courage.

At our new home, we made lots of new doggy friends that we get to run around and play with everyday. True to my German Shepard nature, Im very friendly and obedient and can learn lots of fun tricks. I also like going on walks and getting cuddles from my human friends at the shelter.

Ive had a fun time with my new friends at the shelter but Im ready to find my forever home⁷⁷, with someone I can share all my love and loyalty with. If you open your heart to me, i promise to be the best pup I can be. 🐾❤️

One day, my old owner loaded me and my mother Luxy into the open bed of his truck. We were so skinny our ribs poked through like piano keys, our fur matted and dull from days without a real meal or a gentle pat. He threw a ratty tarp over us to hide the truth, and we huddled together as the truck rumble down winding roads. Hours later, it stopped at a place with kind voices and warm lights-a sanctuary. He didnt look back as he walked away, leaving us behind.

Hi My name is Tom Tom, a bouncy Labrador mix with a wagging tail that could sweep a room clean and soulful eyes that say, "lets be besties-right now!" I'm the kind of guy who greets every day like it's grand adventure, but getting here wasn't all fetch and treats..

'Back in May 2023, my sister and I were just scared shadows on Wakra Beach. The sun beat down our skinny frames- ribs poking like forgotten drumsticks, fur caked in sand and grime from days (or maybe weeks) fending for ourselves. We huddled closed, hearts racing at every wave crash, wondering if kindness was just a myth. No home, no howls-just wide-eyed fear under that endless sky. Then, miracle of miracles, gentle hands scooped us up, wrapped us in blankets, and whisked us to safety. A bath, a meal and suddenly, the world didnt feel so big and bitey.

Fast-forward to today: I'm all plush and playful , the ultimate chill companion who doesnt bark (shh, our little secet for peaceful mornings). I zoom around with other dogs like we're in a never ending game of tag, then flop down for epic cuddle sessions-your lap is my throne, and human hugs? Pure Magic. Whether it's chasing balls at the parks or curling up for movie nights, Im your happy-go-lucky sidekick, overflowing with loyalty and zero drama.

I've come so far from that scared beach pup, but my heart's still got room for one more "you". If you are craving a furry forever friend who'll fill your days with tail wags and your nights with snuggles, give this Lab Mix a hot-adopt me and lets turn "stray" into "soulmate". SANCTUARY

Rescued May 2023

HI, my name is Cookie, a 3 year Old Lab Mix girl with a wobbly tail that begs for belly rubs and eyes that whisper, "pick me?" I'm a whirlwind of joyful pounes and melt-into-your-arm cuddles, but beneath the fluff? A heart scarred by salt and sorrow...

May 2023, Wakra beach, Qatar. My brother Tom Tom and I, mere skeletons in sandy rags-ribs like jagged fences under filthy fur-cowered as the ocean roared our loneliness. Abandoned ghosts, we shook with terror at every gull's cry, bellies empty echoes of forgotten promises. No warmth, no whispers of "good girl", just endless, aching "why us?" Until hands like hope scooped our broken bodies, washing away the grime but not the ghosts.

Now, I'm a sparkle of play-zooming with pups, silent as a secret (no barks, just blissful sighs), craving your hikes, your hugs, your home. But at night, I dream of beaches and brothers splits by chance. Won't you mend this? Adopt me-reunite us for double the wags, or gift me a solo spotlight. DM the Furkids; turn my "lost" into "loved". One paw forward could heal us both Hi, I'm Spirit and I was dumped with my brother, Titin.

I still remember that day-the confusion, the fear, the silence. One moment we were with people we trusted, and the next, we were tied up and left behind in a quiet compound in Qatar. The sun was hot, the ground was rough, and no one came back for us.

Titin tried to stay strong for me-he always does. We kept waiting, hoping, and wagging our tails at every sound, thinking someone would return. But they never did.

Days passed until kind rescuers found us. They untied us, gave us water, and told us everything would be okay. For the first time in so long, we felt safe.

I'm Spirit, the girl with a gentle heart, and my brother Titin is my brave protector. We're both young huskies, not spayed yet, and we're still learning to trust again. But we're ready to find what we've always wanted-love, safety, and a forever family that will never give up on us.🐾

I'm Onyx. For a long time, I waited behind glass door at the vet clinic, watching people come and go. I thought my family would come back for me. Every sound of footsteps made my tail wag in hope.. but they never did. Days turned into weeks, and I realized I'd been left behind.

I'm around 3 to 4 years old-young enough to play, but old enough to understand love. The people at FURKIDS took care of me, gave me food, and kept me safe, but what i truly long for is a home of my own. Someone to walk beside me, to scratch behind my ears, and to tell me that I'll never be forgotten again. I have the sweetest soul and a calm, loyal heart. I love being near people, going for walks, and feeling the wind on my face. I may have been abandoned, but I haven't lost my trust in humans-I still believe that somewhere out there, someone is waiting for me too. If you open your heart to me, I promise to fill your home with love, loyalty, and laughter every single day. My name is Onyx, and I'm ready to start my new chapter- Will you be the one to write it with me?

Hello, I'm Theeb!

I'm a gentle Saluki boy with a big heart and a soft spot for playtime and cuddles.

My story with Furkids began when I was found at a petrol station, scared, alone, and with an injured leg. The kind woman who rescued me brought me to a safe place filled with other dogs just like me, and that's where my healing journey began.

Now that my leg has had time to recover, I spend my days at the shelter making new friends and enjoying every little moment. But deep down, I'm dreaming of a forever home, someone to love, play with, and snuggle with every day.

Could that be you? 🐾

NIKKO

Hi, my name is Nikko, and here is my story.

I don't remember the world being anything but a blur of warmth and whispers at first-curled up against my mama's side, her brindle fur my whole universe. I was just a squirmy little thing, less than a week old, eyes glued shut like secrets I wasn't ready to see. Mama was my hero, a pitbull with a fighter's build and a mother's fire, but her body told tales I wish I could erase: Jagged scars from dogfight rings where cruel hands bet on her pain, and the heavy sag of teats from litters bred without end, puppies like me yanked away to feed the same dark cycle. They'd used her up, my brave girl, until she was just a shadow in that damp, forgotten alley, rain pattering like tears on the concrete as she tried to shield me from the cold.

That's when the soft voices came-humans with gentle hands and eyes full of lights. They called out to her, not with shouts or chains, but with treats and promises. I felt the shift, the way she trembled then relaxed, letting them wrap us in a blanket that smelled like safety for the first time. 5 months later, I'm a sleek black fluffball of zoomies and belly flops, and heart-melting, with a pit soul ready to love forever.

Mama's healing in quiet peace, but I'm dreaming of your couch, walks, and hugs. Spot me at Furkids, let's make my tail wag eternal

Rescued June 2025

Hi, my name is Charlie, and here is my story.

I was the runt of our trio—me, big bro Nikko, and sis Luna—born brave into Mama's scarred embrace, less than a week old in that shadowy alley chill. Mama, our brindle pitbull rock, bore the marks of monsters: fight-ring gashes, breeding chains that drained her litters like endless storms. She tucked us close, her whines a shield: "My little flames, we'll flicker on."

Then the rescuers arrived like dawn—gentle arms, milk bottles, and names that fit like paws in prints: me for the sparkle in chaos, Nikko sunshine, Luna moonlight. Five months later, I'm a fawn-furred whirlwind of wiggles and wonder—tumbling after my sibs in zoomie races, belly-up begging for chin scratches, and hoarding squeakies like secret stars. House-trained, hug-hungry, with a pit spirit that loves fierce and forgives fast.

Mama's blooming in her calm corner, but us pups? We're a constellation craving homes—yours for our playful nights.

I'm at FURKIDS,

Let's chase fireflies forever. Who's our spark? 🐾✨

Rescued June 2025

Hi, my name is Luna, and here is my story.

I was the middle wiggle in our litter of three—me, my brother Nikko, and our little sis—born bold into Mama’s warm shadow, less than a week old in that grim alley hideout. Mama was our fierce brindle pitbull guardian, her body a battlefield of scars from dogfight chains and breeding cages that stole her strength litter after litter. She’d curl us tight against her, her heartbeat a lullaby against the creeping cold, whispering whines that meant, “My stars, hold fast—we’re still shining.” The world crashed in with kind giants one stormy night: soft words, warm blankets, and bottles that chased our hunger away. They named me Luna for the moon’s quiet glow, Nikko for sunshine, and our sis for dawn’s first light. Five months on, I’m a silver-gray fluff of mischief and snuggles—zooming after Nikko’s chaos, belly-flopping with him for pets, and guarding our toys like buried moons. House-trained, cuddle-craving, with that pit heart that loves deep and true. Mama’s mending in her own gentle haven, but us three? We’re a pack dreaming of forever splits—your yard for chases, laps for us to claim. I’m at FURKIDS, ID #Luna2025, eyes pleading, “Pick our trio?” Let’s light up the nights together. Who’s our sky? 🐾🌙

I still remember that day - the loud noise of cars, the heat of the road, and the fear in my mom's eyes. We were hiding on the side of the highway, hungry and exhausted. My mom, Assia, tried to keep me safe, even when she was scared herself. She never left my side.

Then, one day, everything changed. A kind person stopped. They saw us - really saw us - two dogs just trying to survive. They spoke softly,, offered food, and took us away from that dangerous place. For the first time, I felt safe in someone's arms.

My name is Neymar, and I'm about 5-6months old - saluki mix boy. I was rescued together with my mom, Assia. She taught me how to be brave and gentle, and I got my sweet nature from her. I love running, playing and getting cuddles. Life is so much better now but there's still one thing missing - a forever home.

I dream of a family who will love me the way I love them, someone who will never let me go like my rescuers did that day on the highway.

Maybe that family could be you?

Rescued August 2025

Hi, myname is Sameer — a Saluki mix with long legs, a soft heart, and a story to tell.

I was rescued from a racing farm, where I spent my early life running every day. We were taught to chase, to compete, to always be fast. But what I really wanted was someone to stop running — just long enough to hold me.

One day, the kind people from Furkids came for me. They didn't care about how fast I could run — they cared about me. That's when my life changed.

Now I live at the Furkids Sanctuary, where I finally learned what peace feels like. I love playing with other dogs and being around humans — I'm gentle, friendly, and love a good cuddle after a walk. I'm not great with cats (I get a bit too curious), but with people and dogs, I'm all heart.

Every evening, I rest under the open sky and imagine my forever home — a place where I can stretch my legs in the yard, curl up on the couch, and finally belong.

Maybe that home is yours.

If you're looking for a loyal, loving companion with a beautiful soul and a second chance at life, I'm waiting here — ready to run into your heart. 🐾❤️

Hi, I'm Leo.

I'm a 4-year-old mixed-breed dog. I used to live at home, but my owner couldn't care for me anymore and placed me in a boarding house. Since then, two kind people have stepped in to pay for my care because my story touched their hearts. Unfortunately, my owner hasn't checked on me since.

But what I truly long for is a real home—a place where I'm loved, cared for, and truly belong. I'm not happy in the boarding house and dream of finding a family or a foster home where I can thrive.

I'm a loyal and gentle dog who just wants to make someone happy. Whether it's cuddling, playing, or simply being by your side, I promise to bring so much joy to your life.

If you can't adopt me, fostering would still mean the world to me. I just need a safe, loving space to call home for now. Will you help me find happiness?

With love,

Leo 🐾

I'm Megan. I'm a young girl—maybe 12 to 18 months old—a mix of who-knows-what: Border Collie, Husky, maybe a bit of German Shepherd. What I do know is that I'm one of a kind. I have a soft red-brown coat, a white fox-like tip on my tail, and one eye that's half blue, half brown.

I survived almost six months alone on Al Wakra beach. I hid deep inside the mangrove bushes, scared and exhausted, trying to stay alive through the harsh summer heat. Every noise made me run, every shadow made me hide. But I kept going, hoping for a better day.

That day finally came when rescuers found me and refused to give up. They gave me water, safety, and something I hadn't felt in a long time—kindness.

Now I'm learning what it means to be loved. I'm still young, sweet, and full of potential. I just need a home where I can feel safe, grow confident, and show my true happy self.

I'm Meghan, and I'm ready to start my real life with a family who sees the brave little survivor inside me.

I tried to stay strong for my puppies. They looked up at me, and I had to protect them the best I could. But we were scared. We didn't understand why we'd been abandoned.

Then something changed—the neighbors noticed us. They heard our cries and refused to ignore us. They called Furkids, and that's when our whole world shifted. The rescue team came, opened the door, and suddenly there were kind faces, soft voices, and hands that cared.

Fostering

Definition

The foster caregiver provides a safe, loving environment for the dog until a permanent home can be found. This temporary arrangement allows the dog to receive necessary care, socialization, and love while awaiting adoption, thereby easing the burden on shelters and increasing the chances of successful placement into a forever home.

Our Responsibility

1. Providing all necessary expenses for food, supplies, and veterinary care to ensure the dog's health and well-being.
2. Transporting the dog as needed, including driving to veterinary appointments or other necessary destinations.
3. Actively seeking out potential adopters and facilitating meetings between them and the foster dog.
4. Arranging all logistics related to the adoption process, including paperwork, home visits, and follow-up appointments.
5. Providing ongoing support and guidance to both the foster dog and potential adopters throughout the fostering and adoption process.

Your Responsibility

Foster responsibility entails ensuring the dog receives at least two 30-minute walks daily with a leash, prioritizing the safety of the dog, promptly informing us about any emergencies or updates, refraining from handing the dog to anyone else without prior knowledge, and showering the dog with plenty of love and affection, including lots of kisses.

"Your compassion in fostering not only changes lives but also fills the world with hope. Thank you for making a difference, one furry friend at a time."

AT FURKIDS SANCTUARY, EVERY HELPING HAND MAKES A WORLD OF DIFFERENCE. VOLUNTEERS ARE THE HEARTBEAT OF OUR MISSION — WITHOUT YOU, WE COULDN'T SAVE AS MANY LIVES. WHETHER YOU CAN SPARE A FEW HOURS A WEEK OR A FEW DAYS A MONTH, YOUR TIME, LOVE, AND ENERGY MEAN EVERYTHING TO OUR FURKIDS.

Why Volunteer?

- ✨ Be part of a community built on kindness and compassion.
- ✨ Make a real impact — every walk, cuddle, or bath changes a rescue's life.
- ✨ Gain experience in animal care, rescue work, and community events.
- ✨ Create unforgettable memories (our dogs never forget kindness ❤️).

Ways You Can Help:

- 🐾 Dog Walking & Socialization – Give our rescues the exercise and love they need.
- 🐾 Daily Care Support – Feeding, cleaning, bathing, and helping around the sanctuary.
- 🐾 Adoption & Awareness Events – Assist during adoption days, fundraising activities, and community events.
- 🐾 Photography & Social Media – Take photos, videos, or help share their stories online.
- 🐾 Documentation – Help us organize adoption and foster files, update dog profiles, and maintain records.
- 🐾 Transport Assistance – Drive dogs to vet appointments, adoption meetings, or pick up supplies when needed.
- 🐾 Fundraising & Campaigns – Support creative ideas to raise awareness and funds for our rescues.
